NOTE: the regularly scheduled meeting and potluck has been moved to the Dec. 13th date instead of Dec. 19th. Members are asked to bring the following, depending on the beginning letter of your last name:

A to D: Dessert

E to J: Appetizer (please have it on the appetizer table by 6:15)

K to S: Side Dish

T to Z: Salad

Ron also asked for volunteers to help set up for the potluck, purchase items such as flatware, oversee the banquet table and to clean up.

He passed around a sign up sheet for volunteers to sign up.

Upcoming shows:

Ron asked for someone to chair the Motorist Mutual Show schedule for May '13. He explained that about 40 pieces can be hung in the building and that many viewers will see the show.

Carol Hershey announced the Nifty under Fifty show will be held at the High Road Gallery from Dec. 2 - 8.

Carol also told of the upcoming show titled Feature Creatures (all about animals) which will be held at the High Road Gallery in April, 2013. Entry forms can be downloaded from the High Road website.

Deb Haller announced the Central Ohio Plein Air show at the Columbus Museum of Art Nov. 18th. For more information one can visit the www.columbuspublicart.com website. Nancy Vance mentioned the newly formed pastel group, the Ohio Pastel League, is having its premier exhibit at the Sunbear Studios until the end of December.

Vivian Ripley announced two watercolor shows currently being held. One, the Ohio Watercolor Society show, is having its show at the Riffe Center until Jan. 13, 2013.

The other show is the Central Ohio Watercolor Society show at the German Village Meeting House until Nov. 17th.

Ron ended the business meeting and a short break began. Then Alan Sippel, Vice President, introduced a panel of three professional artists from WAAL to discuss with members ways to break through a rut we all encounter at times in our creative pursuits. The three members were Vivian Ripley, Rich Clem and Jim Glover. They each shared their personal ways of leaving the doldrums behind and creating again with a fresh start. WAAL members asked questions and shared ideas. It was very informative and members left the meeting with ideas to think about.

Respectfully submitted,

Sara Worthington,

Recording Secretary
