

Interpretations of American Railroading

Photos by Frederick J. Ripley on Display for November & December

Quest Conference Center 8405 Pulsar Place (Polaris)
Columbus, OH 43240 614-540-5540

Free and open to the public Monday through Friday,
7:00 AM to 6:00 PM, November and December 2019

(also open many evenings and weekends - call ahead for specific date)

Quest Conference Center is delighted to welcome the work of acclaimed photographer of American railroading, Frederick J. Ripley. This extensive exhibit of 28 dramatic enlargements, all 20" x 30" and framed under glass, colorfully and compellingly illustrate striking scenes in Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Iowa. Each piece is accompanied by a full-page caption. Ripley's work has been very enthusiastically received in a wide variety of venues and locations, and examples are in numerous public and private collections. Don't miss these fascinating images that engage with history and tradition, set in some of the most beautiful scenery of our country!

ALL PHOTOGRAPHS ARE FOR SALE

Please contact:
614-949-2056

FREDERICK J. RIPLEY
fjripley68@gmail.com

PO Box 21491
Columbus, OH 43221